MOTION BY SUPERVISOR DON KNABE

July 24, 2012

The National Association of Counties (NACo) holds their annual meeting at a different site each year. The 2011 Annual Conference was held in Portland, Oregon and the 2012 Conference was held in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

On February 8th, the Board of Supervisors sent a five-signature letter to NACo expressing interest in co-hosting the 2016 NACo Annual Meeting in Long Beach, California.

An official bid for the County of Los Angeles to co-host the 2016 NACo Meeting in Long Beach will be submitted for NACo's consideration on July 31, 2012. A final decision on the bid will be determined by NACo in December 2012.

I THEREFORE MOVE that the Board of Supervisors send a five-signature letter to NACo expressing its full support of the County's bid to co-host the 2016 NACo Annual Meeting in Long Beach, and agreement to the financial responsibilities of the County of Los Angeles in co-hosting the event, which are stipulated in NACo's Annual Conference and Exposition Request for Proposal.
